

I urge the FCC not to weaken existing state laws regarding the intrusive telephone calls by telemarketers. Indiana has a "no-call" law which is very effective and should not be overridden by Federal law which would weaken the effectiveness.